Purpose

Our Financial Reporting seminar is meticulously crafted to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of the principles, practices, and regulations governing financial reporting, as well as the latest updates on financial reporting standards. This seminar is perfect for seasoned finance professionals who wish to refine and expand their existing skills, as well as for individuals who are new to the field and seeking foundational knowledge. Participants will gain valuable insights into the intricacies of financial reporting and receive practical guidance aimed at improving their proficiency. Whether your goal is to stay current with the latest standards or to build a strong foundational knowledge, this seminar offers the essential tools and knowledge needed to excel in financial reporting.

Training Objectives

The Financial Reporting seminar provides a comprehensive understanding of essential financial reporting concepts and practices. Participants will explore the necessity of a conceptual framework, examine the regulatory environment, and discuss accounting treatments for various assets and financial instruments. The seminar covers taxation in financial statements, government grants, and revenue recognition principles. It delves into recognition and measurement methodologies, group financial statements, provisions, and post-reporting period events. Participants will also learn about foreign currency transactions, limitations of financial statements, accounting ratios, asset impairment, leasing arrangements, and reporting financial and non-financial performance.

Methodology

The seminar will take place using the method of live online learning through the Zoom platform. During the seminar, various interactive techniques will be used, such as lecture, presentation, questions - answers, discussion, group work, practical exercises.

Candidates

This seminar is ideal for professionals with responsibilities in finance, compliance, and law, including lawyers, analysts, accountants, AML officers, business consultants, project managers, tax advisers, associates, management consultants, auditors, financial supervisors, and managers. It is designed for anyone with a vested interest in enhancing their understanding of financial reporting standards, practices, and their implications for decision-making and compliance.

The program has been approved by the Human Resource Development Authority (HRDA). Businesses/organizations that participate in it with their employees, as well as unemployed individuals, will receive the relevant subsidy, provided that they meet the HRDA's requirements.
